

Society Greet the Brides

MISS JANE MOINSON, DAUGHTER OF DR. LOUIS MOINSON OF PARIS, WHO WILL BE MARRIED TO MR. CYRUS W. MILLER, NEXT SATURDAY AT BIRCHWOOD, MR. AND MRS. ANSON W. BURCHARD'S HOUSE IN LOCUST VALLEY.

PHOTO BY IRA L. HILL'S STUDIO

MRS. MARTIN BROWN SAPORTAS, FORMERLY MISS MARION TIFFANY. SHE IS A DAUGHTER OF MRS. HENRY FLETCHER GODFREY.

PHOTO BY AIME DUPONT STUDIO

WEDDINGS DELAY SUMMER PLANS OF MANY FAMILIES, AND KEEP THEM IN THEIR CITY HOMES

Miss Gertrude Mali to Be Married to Mr. Douglas M. Moffat To-morrow—Miss Helen Parker and Mr. Arthur R. Jones to Be Wed Wednesday Afternoon.

ALTHOUGH statistics indicate a falling off in June weddings, these events in social life are all important just now, when plans are being made for the summer, and the marriages in town have kept many families in their city homes. Before the end of this month life at the various resorts will be well under way.

One of the weddings in town will be quietly celebrated to-morrow, when Miss Gertrude Mali, a daughter of the Belgian Consul General at New York and Mrs. Pierre Mali, will be married to Mr. Douglas M. Moffat of this city and Washington, D. C. The ceremony will take place in the ballroom of the Mali home at 8 Fifth avenue, and will be performed by Rev. Dr. Charles Lewis Slater, pastor of Grace Church, in the presence of a small gathering.

Miss Mali's bridal attendants will be her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. T. Johnston Mali, who was Miss Caramal Carroll, and Miss Rosalie Cde, her cousin. Mr. Edward Moffat will serve as his brother's best man, but ushers will be dispensed with. On Tuesday Mr. Moffat and his bride will sail on the Aquitania, and while abroad will visit some of Miss Mali's relatives in Belgium. Miss Mali is a granddaughter of the late John Taylor Johnston, who was one of the founders of the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

In the church of the Heavenly Rest on Wednesday afternoon there will be a wedding of interest here and in Washington. The bride will be Miss Helen Margaret Parker, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Donaldson Parker of Virginia, and granddaughter of Mrs. Lyman Tiffany of Washington. She will be married to Mr. Arthur Russell Jones, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Strother Jones of this city and Vaudeville, Red Bank, N. J.

Mr. Jones has been identified with the Monmouth County Hunt and during the war he served as a pilot in the air service. His bride elect was for some time in France with the American Red Cross.

Miss Parker will enter the church with her brother, Mr. Morgan Parker. She has decided to have no bridesmaids. Mr. W. Strother Jones, Jr., will act as his brother's best man and the ushers will include Messrs. C. Maury and Howard Jones, also brothers of the bridegroom; Louis Agassiz Shaw and William G. Wendell, of Boston; Richard H. Williams, Jr., George B. Vagstad, Monroe Douglas Robinson, Elliot C. Cowdin, J. W. Fuller Potter and Anton H. Schefer of this city, most of whom were classmates at Harvard with Mr. Jones. The wedding reception will be held in the ballroom of the Gotham.

Another bride of Wednesday will be Miss Hope Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Matson Johnson, who will be married to Mr. Charles Wyatt Williams, son of Mrs. John W. Williams, of Corning, N. Y., in the Edgely Church, Spuyten Duyvil. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. James Watson. Miss Johnson, who is a member of the Junior League, was graduated from Miss Porter's school in Farmington, and Mr. Williams was graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He was in the submarine service during the war.

Mrs. Whitney Colby will be Miss Johnson's matron of honor and her bridesmaids will be Miss Lyabeth Bunker and Miss Emilie Cushman. Mr. Emory L. Johnson, the bride's brother, will serve as best man. Mr. W. Williams and his ushers will be Messrs. Pomeroy Robinson, Edwin N. Darrin, G. Harold Wardfield and Hugh A. Mitchell. The reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. When Mr. and Mrs. Williams return from their wedding trip they will live in the Old Stone House, which is in Spuyten Duyvil.

Miss Eleanor Coward, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fales Coward, will be married to Mr. John Howard Mallon of Cincinnati next Thursday afternoon in the church of the Epiphany, Lexington avenue and Thirty-fifth street, and afterward there will be a small reception at 150 East Thirty-sixth street. Miss Coward, like her father, has been identified with amateur theatricals, and during the war she, with her father, did much to entertain soldiers in the various camps near New York. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. William T. Crocker, assisted by the Rev. Elmore Crocker.

Miss Coward will have two maids of honor, Miss Sophie Mallon, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Eleanor Bill of Bronxville. Her other attendants will

Demand for Houses at Narragansett

Newly Organized Improvement
Association a Factor in Bright Outlook.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

NARRAGANSETT PIER, June 11.—A general feeling of optimism prevails concerning the coming season. There is an unprecedented demand for cottages, and the newly organized Improvement Association is another large factor in the bright outlook.

The list of officers and directors is: President, Capt. Isaac E. Emerson, Baltimore; first vice-president, George F. Naphen, New York; second vice-president, Rowland Hazard, Peace Dale, R. I.; third vice-president, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Waterbury, Conn.; secretary-treasurer, Thomas G. Hazard, Peace Dale; directors, Dr. Charles Hitchcock, Henry Brevoort Kane, Peter A. Porter, M. C. Bowler, New York; Philip K. P. Randolph, Philadelphia; Rowland Hazard, Peace Dale; Walter A. Nye, formerly owner of the Imperial Hotel here; Mrs. Arvid Borda, Miss Sarah Walsh, W. Herbert Caswell, Frank H. Caswell, John Bristol, Joseph I. Denico of Narragansett Pier; Robert J. B. Sullivan, Joseph Samuel, Edgar J. Lowmes, James C. Potter, Providence; Mr. Rush Sturges of Providence is counsel.

The parish of St. Peter's by the Sea will have this season for the first time a supplied choir of boys and girls of the summer colony who will sing at three Sunday morning services under the direction of Stuart Ross. A soprano soloist also will sing. This musical innovation is due to the generosity of Mrs. Merwin White of Providence, who for several seasons past has provided the music at St. Peter's.

The Point Judith Country Club will open June 15. The interior has been renovated and refurnished. An innovation is a ladies committee. Mrs. Edward L. Welsh is chairman, and her associates are Mrs. James G. Balpe, Jr., of New York; Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Peace Dale; and Mrs. John Churchill of Louisville, Ky.

The Massasoit Hotel will open June 15. The new Carleton, formerly Kinney Lodge, on the ocean front, leased and remodelled by Francis Gioia, manager of the Casino, will open earlier than anticipated, on June 30.

Mrs. William G. Strawbridge of Philadelphia, as Mrs. Cross and her three daughters, and Mrs. W. M. Thornston and family and Mr. Alexander Gordon, Jr., of Baltimore, will return to the Imperial this season.

The cottage colony is filling up. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Shepherd of New York have arrived and have with them their daughter, Mrs. S. Hinman Bird of New York, and children.

Mrs. Henry deCoppet of New York has arrived with her daughters, Misses Gertrude and Beatrice deCoppet.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lewis of Providence are at Wakefield, where they will be joined by their sons, John B. Lewis, Jr., of Yale, and Arthur H. W. Lewis of Salisbury School, Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parsons Cross of Providence will not open their Wakefield place, as Mrs. Cross and her three daughters are on the way to Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Hinckley of Providence have rented a house here. Mrs. Hinckley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Baker of Greenwich, Conn., will join them here.

Continued on Sixth Page.

MRS. JOHN RICHARD THORNDIKE, FORMERLY MISS CAROLINE L. WYETH. SHE IS A DAUGHTER OF MRS. STEPHEN G. WILLIAMS.

PHOTO BY CAMPBELL STUDIO

Carroll Club Takes Part in 'Splash Week'

Members of the Carroll Club played its part during "Splash Week" in co-operation with the Red Cross. On the mornings and afternoons of every day of last week the club's swimming instructors gave free swimming lessons in the swimming pool in the clubhouse at 120 Madison avenue. The regular club classes were conducted as usual without interruption.

The week closed last night with a dance and to-day several hundred of the six thousand members will observe "Recreation Sunday." Father John Morgan, S. J., will say a communion mass at the cenacle, 140th street and Riverside Drive. The club members will go back to the clubhouse for breakfast and the remainder of the day will be devoted to committee conferences and a final benediction.

Rye and Port Chester to Join in Kermess

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

RYE, N. Y., June 11.—There is great interest in Rye and Port Chester in the Kermess to be given for the Great Hospital of Port Chester, Rye and Harrison on the evenings of June 25, 26 and 27 and July 1 at the new high school building in Port Chester. There will be an Arabian Nights pageant, dances and a fashion show directed by Miss Lila A. Stewart.

The executive committee is composed of Misses Francis P. Palmer, chairman; Lorenzo Armstrong, Clifford Mallory, Alexander J. Fraser and William J. Tigue.

Other committee heads are: Misses George Arnts, Philip R. Mallory, Alfred D. Bell, Albert T. Maurice, Robert R. Cook, Roger S. Mitchell, Daniel O'Day, George Barnes and Mr. Duncan Bulkeley.

Tickets may be purchased at the leading shops of Rye and Port Chester.

Seabright Cottagers Arrive for Season

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

SEABRIGHT, N. J., June 11.—Bathing early in the week was not inviting because of the heavy surf. But since the breezes have changed and come off the beach there has been good bathing in the swimming pool in the clubhouse at 120 Madison avenue. The regular club classes were conducted as usual without interruption.

The concrete road that spans the Rumson Drive and extends to the Harding road, which takes the automobilist with in the confines of Red Bank, a distance of eight miles from the Seabright drawbridge, to the Red Bank Jersey Central station, will be completed within a week. J. Horace Harding, who started this roadway by having the Harding road paved, aggregating an expenditure of more than $125,000, was instrumental in inducing the borough officials of Rumson and Fairhaven to continue the concrete paving along the entire distance of the Rumson Drive.

The summer folk comprising the sections along the South and North Beach as well as the Rumson Drive and West Park sections have arrived for the season.

Arrivals on the Rumson Drive include Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Auchincloss and Mrs. Frank C. Armstrong and family, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore H. Banks, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. Caesar, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Caesar, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoagland and children, Mr. and Mrs. Porter Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. George A. H. Churchill and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Silcock and Mr. John Achels.

At their cottages along the beach are Mr. and Mrs. Henry I. Riker and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Battle and daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Battle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Boston and daughter, Miss Katherine, Boston, Mrs. James A. Strymer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cornell, Mr. Charles Schweidler and family and Mr. J. Fitzgerald and family.

Commencement at St. Paul's School

Garden City Students Are Graduated—Hotel
Arrivals.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

GARDEN CITY, L. I., June 11.—This has been a busy week with relatives and friends of the students of the cathedral schools here from various parts of the country. St. Paul's commencement was held Tuesday and that of St. Mary's for girls, will take place next week.

Former St. Paul's students from all parts of the country attended the exercises on Tuesday. There will be several reunion dinners at the Garden City Hotel. Bishop O'Connell conducted the St. Paul's exercises and was assisted by Dean O. F. H. Tredor of the Garden City Cathedral and the Rev. Roy F. Duffield.

To Charles Dana Christmas was awarded the alumni cup. The graduates were William H. V. Allen, Harry Bodell Ashdown, Samuel P. Barker, Arthur H. Beckwith, Jr., Robert L. Bergen, Charles Dana Christman, Edward Cooper Hewitt, Charles W. Hinton, Gordon S. Howe, Theodore N. Irwin, Frederick K. Ivers, Arthur Kennedy, Jr., William M. Larrabee, Hugh C. S. O'Reilly, Edward S. Rising, Raymond W. Smith and Parker Crossley Webb.

New York arrivals at the Garden City Hotel include Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rogers, Mrs. Thomas B. Peck, Mrs. S. Fullerton Weaver, Mrs. Paul Fellows, Mrs. E. Keating, Mrs. John T. Terry, J. L. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Abbes, W. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tomson, Miss E. M. Boggs, H. B. Forman, William T. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Roome, Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Lindsay, Mrs. William B. Elkins, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Farmer.

From Brooklyn among those who registered were Mr. and Mrs. James L. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. W. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Keator, Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Chauncey, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Pool and O. Chauncey Pool. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood Parsons, Great Neck, L. I.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Simmons, Great Neck; Mr. and Mrs. James H. Johnson, Bellport, L. I.; Mr. William H. Reeves, Philadelphia, Pa.; and Archie C. Wheeler and William J. Nichols, Bridgeport, Conn.

President Commends Memorial Tree Planting

The Free Industrial School for Crippled Children, of which Mr. Walter Scott is president, has been commended for its useful work in planting memorial fruit trees by the following letter from President Harding recently received by the secretary, Miss Amelia Day Campbell:

"I have been much pleased to receive your letter describing the work at the Home for Crippled and Delicate Children in Claverack. I am impressed that in planting a memorial orchard at the home you are doing a useful work and one which involves a fine sentiment. I am sure it is worthy of all approval. Very truly yours, WARREN G. HARDING."

Society Active at Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew to Join Sojourners
There Soon—Arrivals.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

HOT SPRINGS, Va., June 11.—The summer season at the Homestead promises to be very little affected by the resumption of European travel. Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey M. Depew are expected soon at the Homestead. So also are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delevan Wetmore, Mr. and Mrs. F. Beverly Eyrer, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell H. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Edwards, Mrs. William H. Dougherty and Miss Nanno Dougherty, Mrs. William H. Payne and Miss Alice V. Payne. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Heidekoper of Washington will be at the Homestead several days before opening the Tinker cottage at the head of the golf course, which they are to occupy for the summer.

Mrs. Richard Stevens and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Stevens, will return to New York late in the month for the arrival of Miss Caroline Stevens from Europe for her marriage to Mr. Edward B. Condon. Miss Alisa Mellon, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Andrew J. Mellon, has arrived from Washington with Miss Olive Graef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lee, who have arrived several days before opening the Tinker cottage at the head of the golf course, which they are to occupy for the summer.

The honeymoon colony was increased during the week by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Higgins of Wilmington, Del. Mrs. Higgins was Miss Marion Dunham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Dunham of Wilmington. Mr. and Mrs. John C. Lee have arrived from New Haven, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Lockhart from St. Louis and Mrs. E. G. Siggers and Miss Mary P. Siggers from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kelly Evans are in their newly decorated cottage. Their first entertainment was a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williams. The house is lovely Italian, both in architecture and furnishing, many of the pieces having been brought from Italy by Mr. and Mrs. Evans. Miss Ruth Hanson has as guest at the Chestnuts Mrs. George Eustis of Cincinnati, and on Wednesday entertained at tea for her on the Casino lawn. Mr. and Mrs. James Mandeville Carlisle have arrived from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Callery of Pittsburgh have taken the Pillars, the house of Mrs. Frederic Stearns. Mrs. Jean Wilke and Miss Marguerite Wilke of New York are to be at Vyncote for the summer. Mrs. Edgar Park has remained at Boxwood Farm and will be joined from time to time by Mr. Park. Mrs. Bertram G. Work is continuing her cure, and is daily on the walking trails. Mr. Work, who arrived from New York with Mrs. Work, has gone to Canada on a fishing trip. Mrs. John Clinton Grey of Newport entertained at tea at Valse Vie.

Mrs. Alfred Seton Post and Mrs. George Bend were among those returning to New York this week. Mr. Harold H. Swift and his guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ellis and Mrs. Logan J. Gridley, started for New York and after a fortnight at the Plaza will return to their homes in Chicago.

Mrs. Alfred Seton Post and Mrs. George Bend were among those returning to New York this week. Mr. Harold H. Swift and his guests, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ellis and Mrs. Logan J. Gridley, started for New York and after a fortnight at the Plaza will return to their homes in Chicago.

D. A. R. DANCE FOR VETERANS.

Continental Chapter, Daughters of the Revolution, Mrs. Washington L. Mann regent, will celebrate Flag Day (Tuesday) by giving a dance at the Hotel Pennsylvania for benefit of the Student Club of Disabled One Time Service Men. The proceeds from the dance will be used for the vacation funds of the club. Tickets to the dance are only $1 and may be obtained from the chairman, Mrs. Axel O. Dilling, 124 East Thirty-fourth street. A subscription of $5 will constitute a patroness.

Greek Pageant at Greenwich

It Will Be Held on Lawn of
Mrs. E. W. Packard's Place
—Notes of Resort.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE NEW YORK HERALD.

GREENWICH, Conn., June 11.—Members of the young set of society here are rehearsing for a Greek pageant, "The Isle of the Rose," to be given on the lawn of Mrs. Edward W. Packard's place, Wood Manse, on next Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening. The proceeds will be devoted to the Young Women's Christian Association. Mrs. Mary Hill-Brown of New York is coaching the cast.

Miss Elizabeth Hyde, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fritz Carleton Hyde, will have the role of Diana. Other prominent parts will be taken by Lee Gibbons, J. H. Hunt, Julian W. Curtiss, Miss Helen Barrett, Mrs. J. H. Hunt, Mrs. George L. Storm, Misses Isabel Rockefeller, Polly and Hope Lincoln, Helen Schwarz, Dorothy Thompson, Lois Smith, Elizabeth Miller, Ethel Hays, Dorothy Quinn, Gene Brewster, Pamela Pryor, Anne Seton, Helen Meany, Charlotte Merritt, Ida Huntington and Lucy and Isaac Lockwood. There are more than one hundred young persons taking part.

The first of a series of June musicales to be given at the Belle Haven Casino was held yesterday afternoon. The other musicales will be given on June 17 and 24. They are under the direction of Miss Carolyn Beebe, solo pianist and founder of the New York Chamber Music Society, assisted by Miss Lillian Ring, soprano; Charles Vaughan Holly, tenor; Ralph Leopold, pianist, and a piano and string trio. Many prominent women in Belle Haven are acting as patronesses. The seven veterans of the world war who were being entertained by the Daughters of the American Revolution here attended the opening musicale with officers of the American Legion Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of New York.

Next Thursday a bridge for the benefit of the Bethany Day Nursery will be placed at "Hickcock," the home of Mrs. Winchester Pritch.

Miss Amy Grant, who recites opera texts to piano accompaniment, will give a recital at the home of Mrs. Alfred Gilchrist on Monday, June 20. Lawrence Schaffner will be the accompanist. On Thursday morning the second of Mrs. Morrill Hamilton's June talks on "The World's Current History" took place at the home of Mrs. Frederick C. Rawlin in Belle Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spickerman have returned from abroad and are at the Pickwick Arms. They will open their place in South street of New York.

Mrs. H. N. Hitchcock of Great View, her grandson, Mr. Henry Clarke Banks, and his fiancée, Miss Gertrude H. F. Reutter of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Hitchcock's granddaughter, Miss Barbara Hitchcock, have returned from an automobile trip to Williamstown, Mass.

A lawn festival was given at the place of Mr. Coulter D. Huyler in Round Hill on Wednesday afternoon and evening for the benefit of the Round Hill M. E. Church, in which Mrs. Huyler is actively interested.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart Boling, who have returned from their honeymoon trip, were week-end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Lanier, at their country home here.

At the Pickwick Arms here this week were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Frankard, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Piper, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Slayback and Mrs. Charles W. Post of New York.

At the Edgewood Inn are Mrs. F. S. Stoddard, Mrs. H. J. Cammann, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Corra, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lundin, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Haggerty, Miss Kathryn Haggerty, Mr. J. M. Buick and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Padel of New York.